

Timber frames provide rhythm and act as a landmark between garden rooms

Using planting / features to indicate a change of direction

Light weight pergola with seating and climbing plants

Variety of surfaces creates garden rooms

Green wall

Mosaic tiles at garden entrance

Colourful planting and seating

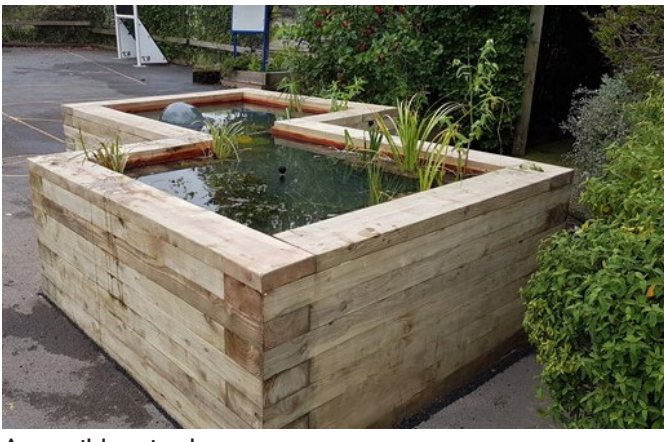

Raised growing beds with colourful seating

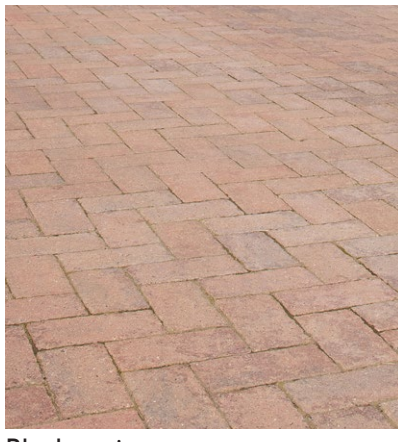

Covered cycle parking

Brick wall with contemporary metal railing and timber gate

Accessible raised pond

Block paving

Lawn with informal path

Timber seating / furniture

Use of planting to frame garden rooms

Edible plants

Colourful textured plants

Scented plants create a nice smell when crushed

Pyrus calleryana 'Chanticleer' (through the seasons)

Acer x freemanii 'Autumn Blaze' (through the seasons)

Native Hornbeam hedging

Informal evergreen hedging

Edible Green (Herb) Wall

Prunus x yedoensis (through the seasons)

Betula pendula (through the seasons)

Mixed shrub border

Biodiverse Roof

Aquatic plants